Policy statement

If a child is not collected by an authorised adult by their expected collection time, we put into practice agreed procedures. The child will receive a high standard of care to cause as little distress as possible.

We inform parents/carers of Our procedures so that, if they are unavoidably delayed, they will be reassured that their children will be properly cared for.

Procedures

- Parents are asked to provide the following specific information when their child starts attending Our setting, which is recorded on Our Registration Form:
 - Home address and telephone number - if the parents do not have a telephone, an alternative number must be given, perhaps a neighbour or close relative.
 - Place of work, address, and telephone number
 - Mobile telephone number
 - Names, addresses, telephone numbers of adults who are authorised by the parents to collect their child from the setting, for example a childminder or grandparent.
 - Who has parental responsibility for the child?
 - Information about any person who does not have legal access to the child.
 - On occasions when parents, or the persons normally authorised to collect the child, are not able to collect the child, they provide us with a password and details of person collecting.
 - Parents are informed that if they are not able to collect the child as planned, they must inform us so that we can begin to take back-up measures. Our contact telephone number is Parents are also asked to inform us if someone different from themselves are picking up and even if they are on the form, we like to hear beforehand from them to confirm. Passwords will need to be used.
 - If a child is not collected at their expected collection time, we follow the procedures below:
 - The child's file is checked for any information about changes to the normal collection routines.
 - If no information is available, parents/carers are contacted at home or at work.
 - If this is unsuccessful, the adults who are authorised by the parents to collect their child - and whose telephone numbers are recorded on the Registration Form – are contacted.
 - All reasonable attempts are made to contact the parents or nominated carers.
 - The child does not leave the premises with anyone other than those named on the Registration Form or in their file.
 - If no-one collects the child within 30 minutes of their expected collection time and there is no named contact who can be contacted to collect the child, we apply the procedures for uncollected children.
 - If we have any cause to believe the child has been abandoned, we contact the local authority children's social care team: If the children's social care team is unavailable [or as our local authority advise] we will contact the local police.
